March to Missions

THIS ISSUE
HIGHLIGHTS
IMA
MISSIONARIES
AROUND THE

Haiti is on most everyone's mind right now. We are thankful that God has sent missionaries to Haiti. These missionaries went to work right away to help with the earthquake disaster relief. Since the earthquake many missionary teams associated with the IMA have gone to Haiti. The IMA set up a disaster fund after hurricane Katrina. This is a separate fund used only for disasters. We have already sent contributions from that fund to missions in Haiti. If you would like to help with the IMA's efforts in Haiti you can contribute through the Home Office to the Disaster Fund..

In this Special Issue of the Herald Newsletter we want you to get acquainted with IMA missionaries. The missionaries who receive monthly financial support from the IMA receive their support from the World Harvest Missions fund. This fund comes primarily from the offering and pledges received at the National Conference and throughout the year. There are other IMA Missionaries who receive funding from contributions sent to the IMA directed to their mission. Previously these were called designated and undesignated funds. The IMA dispenses all the funds received for missions. The expenses of the Missions Department is paid from the General Fund through annual fees and not from the Missions Department. Funds received for missionaries either designated or undesignated are sent to the missionaries. The IMA does not deduct any of the offerings for missionaries to pay the expenses for distributing the funds.

MISSIONS DIRECTOR REV. ROY PETERSON

We are honored to dedicate the IMA Herald this month to IMA missionaries. It has been my privilege to serve the International Ministerial Association as Mission Director for more than three years and a blessing to work with our missionaries as they serve around the world presenting the Word of God to the lost. I am impressed with the quality of their lives and ministries as I have become better acquainted with them and I encourage you to reach out and support them, too. You will be blessed. The following is some pictures that were sent to the editor and a list of our IMA missionaries with the country where they minister. We salute and honor all missionaries who are taking the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the world. Keep this issue of the Herald Newsletter as a source to remind you to pray for them and support missionaries.

"Providing today's ministers the freedom they want and the fellowship they need."
